DeSmogBlog, if you don't know it, is a great resource. Time named it one of the 25 best blogs of 2011. They've got a great team and hard-hitting stories. I was happy to have one there a few years back: The Paradox of Canada's Tar Sands and America's Drive to Substantially Decarbonize Energy.

They've been good enough to post an excerpt from the book there today. It's on the insurance industry's response to climate change. Take a look - and definitely bookmark and/or subscribe to DeSmogBlog.
